POSTAL CLERK CHARGED WITH THEFT

PRESS RELEASE

INDIANAPOLIS - Casey D. Armstrong, 35, Lawrenceville, Illinois, was charged with Misappropriation of Postal Funds, announced Timothy M. Morrison, U.S. Attorney, Southern District of Indiana, following an investigation by the U.S. Postal Service - Office of the Inspector General.

The information alleges that between January and December 2008, Armstrong misappropriated to her own personal use at least $2,000 in postal funds. During that time period, Armstrong worked as a postal clerk at the Vincennes, Indiana, Post Office.

According to Assistant U.S. Attorney A. Brant Cook, who is prosecuting the case for the government, Armstrong faces a maximum of 10 years in prison, a $250,000 fine, and up to three years of supervised release following any sentence of imprisonment. An initial hearing will be scheduled before a U.S. Magistrate Judge.

An information is only a charge and is not evidence of guilt. A defendant is presumed innocent and is entitled to a fair trial at which the government must prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
